No. 92
 Station Ottacandi, Dated the 16th January 1933

From (Name) Lieut-Col. G. W. Macdonachie, M.B., I.M.S., (Designation) Inspector-General of Prisons.

To The Secretary to the Government of Madras,
 Law (General) Department.

Sir, Under rule 515-B Jail Manual, I have the honour to submit the nominal roll and medical case sheet of the prisoner referred to for the orders of Government.

2. The prisoner was removed to the Pentland Hospital on 9-1-1933 in anticipation of sanction of Government.

3. The date of her discharge therefrom and readmission into the Jail will be reported in due course.

I have the honour to be, Sir,
 Your most obedient servant,
 G. W. Macdonachie
 Lieut-Col. I.M.S.,
 Inspector-General of Prisons.

Medical case sheet of B class Civil Disobedience prisoner of (B Class) No. 1021 Ponaka Kanakamma.

DYSENTERY

The prisoner before admission complained of suppression of urine. This was attended to. On the 5th she reported sick with griping pain & frequency of stools. She passed several motions which contained blood and mucus. Specimen of stool was examined under microscope and Eutamoeba Hystolica cysts were found.

Emetine gr. 1 injected. On the 6th she had fever 102. Pain and griping still present. Stools contain blood and mucus.

Emetine gr. 1.

On the 7th. Temperature continues. Frequency of stools present. Blood and mucus less. No M.F. found in blood slide. Patient complains of feeling weak.

On the 8th morning. Motions free from blood and mucus but frequency is more. Patient complains of palpitation. Temperature 102.4. Feeling of numbness in right leg which has come on suddenly. She is feeling very weak.

As the patient's condition is such as to require proper nursing she was sent to Pentland Hospital in anticipation of sanction of Government to release on parole.
