Act to provide further for the conduct of business by the Board of Revenue.

Communicating to the Revenue Department the assent of His Excellency the Governor-General to the —, and directing the publication of the Act in the Fort St. George Gazette.

6/7
The following Act of the Governor of Fort St. George on Council received the assent of His Excellency the Governor in the 24th November 1893 and of His Excellency the Governor-General on the 4th January 1894, and is hereby promulgated for general information:—

MADRAS ACT No. I of 1894

An Act to provide further for the conduct of business by the Board of Revenue.

WHEREAS it is expedient to provide further for the conduct of business by the Board of Revenue; It is hereby enacted as follows:—

1. Madras Act II of 1883 (An Act to provide for the conduct of business by the Board of Revenue) and Section 7 of Regulation I of 1803 are hereby repealed. Repeal.

2. Notwithstanding anything contained in Regulation I of 1803, in Regulation V of 1804, or in any other enactment in force in the Presidency of Madras, it shall be lawful for the Board of Revenue, subject to the approval of Government, to declare what portion of the business of the Board may be disposed of by a single member or by two members and what portion shall be reserved for the decision of a Collective Board. Every such declaration shall, after approval by Government, be notified in the Fort St. George Gazette. Board may distribute business subject to approval of Government.

Provided that, in the case of any subject reserved for disposal by a single member or by two members, the said member or members may refer it, after consideration, for the opinion of another member or for the decision of a Collective Board, as the case may be, and that, where the opinions of two members differ, they shall refer the subject for the decision of a Collective Board. Proviso.

3. All orders made and decisions passed by one or more members of the Board in accordance with a declaration made under the last preceding section or with its proviso shall be held to be the orders and decisions of the Board of Revenue, and the same shall not be deemed invalid by reason that subsequent thereto the said declaration was disapproved by Government. Orders of one or more members to be orders of Board.

4. Not less than three members of the Board shall be held to constitute a Collective Board. A Collective Board.
