22ND MARCH 1886, No. 650 (Public), to the Chief Secretary, Government of Madras, 16th March 1886.

GOVERNMENT OF MADRAS.
 LEGISLATIVE DEPARTMENT.

READ—the following papers :—

From the President of the Committee, and from the President of the Committee, No. 650 (Public), to the Chief Secretary, Government of Madras, 16th March 1886.

With reference to G.O., 8th March 1886, and the remarks of the Committee the draft Bill for the market value of their improvements, General, I have the honor to state that the Committee and is returned with the following:

2. Objection was taken by some members of the Committee to the draft Bill as amended by the Advocate-General, Madhava Rao object in toto to that section, object of the Committee to give the tenant the especially of fruit trees referred to in clause (a) of the Committee consider that the result of "work" in section 3 (1), and the insertion of "and maintenance of" before the words "fruit trees" be to cause the cost of planting, protection, and maintenance of the value of the improvements, as the measure of the value of the improvements, the Committee is agreed that the object of the Committee and Sir Madhava Rao, but is divided in opinion as to whether the draft Bill, as amended by the Advocate-General, secures the object.

3. The Committee suggest the following amendments in the Bill :—

(1) that in section 3 (1), line 4, the word "value;"

(2) that in section 3 (2) (g), line 1, the word "and;"

(3) that in section 6 (1) the first part of the clause "6 (1). The compensation to be awarded by which the value, or the produce of the improvements is increased by the improvements."

Explanation.—In ascertaining such amount of compensation the following matters be taken into consideration :—

- (a) the condition of the improvements and the probable duration of its effects;
- (b) the labor and capital required for the making of the improvements, or any other advantage given by the improvements;
- (c) any reduction or remission of rent by the landlord to the tenant in consideration of the improvements.

(4) that in section 6 (2), lines 1 and 2, the word "trees," and the words "in the improvements" be omitted before the word "plants."

4. A copy of the Minutes of the Proceedings of the Committee will be presented at the meeting of the Committee and that the amendments noted in the last paragraph.

in G.O., 17th September 1885, to Government, dated Madras, 16th March 1886.

42, Legislative, returning, for the tenants in the Malabar district by the Honorable the Advocate-General, considered by the Committee.

the Committee to section 3 of the Bill, H. J. Stokes and Raja Sir T. now stands, because it was the market-value of improvements, and clause 3 (2); whereas these members finding "improvement" to be a word, "the planting, protection, and maintenance of" of section 3 (2), may be to cause the cost of planting, protection, and maintenance of the value of the improvements, as the measure of the value of the improvements, the Committee is agreed that the object of the Committee and Sir Madhava Rao, but is divided in opinion as to whether the draft Bill, as amended by the Advocate-General, secures the object.
