C. No 275

FOR ORDERS

Submitted for perusal. It is presumed that the Dt. Municipalities Bill will not be taken into consideration at the next Council meeting. The notices regarding this Bill which were under orders sent out to members of Council commenced "The Hon. Mr. Price will probably move" The word "probably" was inserted in view of the fact that, at the time the notices were issued, the Govt. of India had not replied to the letter asking for sanction to the additional penal clauses inserted in the Bill by the Select Committee. ~~and~~ an urgent telegram was despatched to the Govt. of India on the same day as the notices were issued asking for an immediate reply to that letter, as it was proposed to take up the Bill on the 4th.

2. The temporary postponement of the Bill will ~~however~~ conduce to greater convenience as the number of amendments which have been proposed is so great as to render it practically impossible to consider them fully before the 4th Nov. The Hon. Jambulinga Mudr. has sent in 50, the Hon. Vijayaragavachariar ¹³ the Hon. Kalyanasundara Aiyar ⁴, the Hon. N. Subba Rao ^{others also} and it is probable that the Hon. Rangayya Nayudu
