THE CHIEF SECRETARY TO THE GOVERNMENT OF BENGAL.
THE CHIEF SECRETARY TO THE GOVERNMENT OF THE NORTH-WESTERN PROVINCES AND OUDH.

Home Department.
Judicial.

Simla, the 5th November 1895.

SIR,

I AM directed to forward a copy of a Despatch* from the Secretary of State, regarding the newly-constituted Society of Comparative Legislation.

* No. 23-Judicial, dated the 18th July 1895, with enclosures.

2. I am to request that, with the permission of His Honour the Lieutenant-Governor (and Chief Commissioner), enquiries may be made whether persons of a suitable position, such as described in Lord Herschell's letter, can be found who would act as local agents and corresponding members of the Society, and that the names of such persons may be reported to the Government of India. I am also to invite an opinion as to the possibility of forming a Branch of the Society for British India, outside Madras and Bombay, in which the Legislative Department of the Supreme Government would necessarily be represented, as well as the High Courts of Bengal and the North-Western Provinces, with the Chief Court of the Punjab and the Judicial Branch of the Non-regulation Provinces.

*3. I am to enclose a copy of the accompanying letter† addressed to the High Court of Calcutta on the subject, and to request that action may be taken in the matter in communication with the Honourable the Chief Justice and Judges of the Court. A copy of this letter has been communicated to the High Court.

† To Bengal Government only.
* No. 1624 dated the 3rd November 1895.

4. I am further to request that the Secretary of State's Despatch and its enclosures may be published in the local Gazette for general information.

I have the honour to be,

SIR,

Your most obedient Servant,

L. M. THORNTON,

Deputy Secretary to the Government of India.

State, regarding the newly constituted Society of Comparative Legislation.

2. I am to request that, with the permission of His Honour the Lieutenant-Governor, enquiries may be made as to what persons are qualified and willing to act as corresponding members of the Society, and that the names of such persons may be reported to the Government of India.

3. I am further to request that the Secretary of State's Despatch, with accompaniments, may be published in the local Gazette for general information.

4. The Governor General in Council would also be glad to receive an expression of your opinion as to the feasibility of forming a Branch of the Society for British India, outside Madras and Bombay, in which the Legislative Department of the Supreme Government would necessarily be represented as well as the High Courts of Bengal and the North-Western Provinces, with the Chief Court of the Punjab and the Judicial Branch of the Non-Regulation Provinces.

Simla, the 5 November 1895.

SIR,

I AM directed to forward a copy of a Despatch* from the Secretary of State, regarding the newly constituted Society of Comparative Legislation.

* No. 23-Judicial, dated the 18th July 1895, with enclosures.

2. I am to enquire, with reference to the 5th paragraph of Lord Herschell's letter, whether the Honourable the Chief Justice or any of the other Judges of the Court would be prepared to accept the position of a corresponding member of the Society. The Government of Bengal has also been asked to report the name of any suitable person who would accept the position (a copy of the letter to that Government is enclosed), and I am to ask that the High Court will take action in the matter in communication with His Honour the Lieutenant-Governor.

3. I am further to invite an expression of the opinions of the Honourable Judges as to the feasibility of forming a Branch of the Society for British India, outside Madras and Bombay, in which the Legislative Department of the Supreme Government would necessarily be represented as well as the High Courts of Bengal and the North-Western Provinces, with the Chief Court of the Punjab and the Judicial Branch of the Non-Regulation Provinces.

I have the honour to be,

SIR,
