Legis DEPARTMENT

C. No. 301.

FOR ORDERS.

As to whether the travelling allowance claimed for the two persons who accompanied the Deputy Collector of Kollegal to Trichinopoly, when he proceeded to that place as a voting delegate of the Coimbatore District Board, in August last should be admitted.

No such claims were made by the official voting delegates during the election of 1893; and none, yet by the official voting delegates of this year's elections for example,

T. Varada Rao Esq.

D. Jagannatha Rao Panhula Jora

Muhammad Aziz ud. Din Sahib Bahadur

CRH I submit that the claim is clear one which should be disallowed. The persons ^{presumably} accompanied the D. Collector for that officer's personal convenience & he should pay for their expenses.

I would certainly disallow this. Nobody else has asked for it - and I see no reason whatever why an exception shd. be made in this individual's favour.
