CHIEF SECRETARY
-6 JAN. 1896
GOVERNMENT OF MADRAS

MAY IT PLEASE YOUR EXCELLENCY,

We the Jenmis of Malabar, while respectfully expressing our gratitude for the gracious justice of Government in referring the new Jenomam Registration Bill to a Select Committee, humbly beg leave to submit that the important Section 14, as amended by the Honorable Bhashyam Iyengar cannot still protect the Jenmy from material and certain injury, unless it is modified so as to place a wholesome check against any sinister action on the part of the tenant.

The section provides compensation to the Jenmy only in respect of the seizure, attachment and sale of moveable property or of the crops or ungathered products of land on which an arrear is due.

From the following circumstances, Your Excellency will be justly pleased to see that practically, the provision would not fully confer the desired benefit on the landlord.

In the first place, while revenue is recovered by the authorities between the months of December and March, the field crops and all dry crops could be gathered only between August and October. So, herein, it would be easy for the tenant to outwit the landlord. In the case of garden produce, such as cocoanuts, or in the case of moveable goods and chattles within doors, the tenant would always have sufficient time to get them out of the way and prevent their being attached and seized.

For grave reasons such as these, section 14 even as amended by the Honorable member is inadequate to completely safe guard the bare interests of the landlord.

We humbly beg to point out that it is invariably the rule with Jenmies to register only such tenants as have monied or other tangible interest in the land they occupy, wherefore if Government would graciously and justly add a provision to section 14 that the tenant's monied interest or his period of interest in the land shall be distrainable without encumbrance, it would afford the jenmy that protection which the Legislature intends, but which the section as it stands in the amended form is not calculated to afford.

We would respectfully submit that our suggestion cannot possibly have any oppressive effect on tenant occupants, but is only intended to secure us immunity from annoyances which cannot but result if the legislature did not help us in this matter.

We respectfully appeal to Your Excellency for justice and shall as in duty bound,

EVER PRAY.

No. 140, LEGISLATIVE, 21st DECEMBER 1895.

GOVERNMENT OF MADRAS.

LEGISLATIVE DEPARTMENT.

READ—the following papers:—

General

Memorial from the President and Vice-President of the Kerala Mahajana Sabha, Calicut, and certain other Jenmies of Malabar, to His Excellency the Right Hon'ble the President of the Legislative Council, Fort St. George.

MAY IT PLEASE YOUR EXCELLENCY,—We the Jenmies of Malabar, while respectfully expressing our gratitude for the gracious justice of Government in referring the new Jenmam Registration Bill to a Select Committee, humbly beg leave to submit that the important section 14 as amended by the Hon'ble Bhashyam Iyengar cannot still protect the Jenmi from material and certain injury, unless it is modified so as to place a wholesome check against any sinister action on the part of the tenant. 8

The section provides compensation to the Jenmi only in respect of the seizure, attachment and sale of moveable property or of the crops or ungathered products of land on which an arrear is due. a/

From the following circumstances, your Excellency will be justly pleased to see that, practically, the provision would not fully confer the desired benefit on the landlord.

In the first place, while revenue is recovered by the authorities between the months of December and March, the field crops and all dry crops could be gathered only between August and October. So, herein, it would be easy for the tenant to outwit the landlord. In the case of garden produce, such as cocoanuts, or in the case of moveable goods and chattles within doors, the tenant would always have sufficient time to get them out of the way and prevent their being attached and seized.

For grave reasons such as these, section 14 even as amended by the Hon'ble Member is inadequate to completely safe-guard the bare interests of the landlord.

We humbly beg to point out that it is invariably the rule with Jenmies to register only such tenants as have monied or other tangible interest in the land they occupy; wherefore, if Government would graciously and justly add a provision to section 14 that the tenant's monied interest or his period of interest in the land shall be distrainable without encumbrance, it would afford the Jenmi that protection which the Legislature intends, but which the section as it stands in the amended form is not calculated to afford. a/ 7 a/

We would respectfully submit that our suggestion cannot possibly have any oppressive effect on tenant occupants, but is only intended to secure us immunity from annoyances which cannot but result if the Legislature did not help us in this matter.

We respectfully appeal to your Excellency for justice and shall, as in duty bound, ever pray.

Telegram from the Zamorin of Calicut, dated Tirur, 17th December 1895.

Registration Bill Select Committee's amendments entirely inadequate. Amendment of dissenting members only bare justice. Repeal of Act VIII already unsettled Jenmies' minds. We fear serious consequences. Pray relief.
