The Superintendent, Government Press, submits that 6 copies each of all Acts and Bills are being supplied to each of the Tahsildars for sale to the public, under G.O., dated 6th March 1883, No. 46 Legislative. As the marginally noted Tahsildars have returned all the copies of Acts and Bills supplied to them up to date as unsold, the undersigned begs to enquire whether it is necessary to send copies of the future Acts and Bills to the Tahsildars who report that the copies are not saleable in their Taluks, and request that the future supply may be discontinued.

ENCLOSURE.

Cs.
Submitted that one copy at least should go for sale; there is evidently no need to send six, but the object of the measure being to render acts available for sale to the non-official public, it is desirable that these papers shd. have one copy: if they want more they can write for them: probably they will not.
