PROCEEDINGS OF THE MADRAS GOVERNMENT.

Read the following paper:—

G.O. dated 11th January 1895 A^o 31 M, approving and confirming with remarks the Byelaws adopted by the Municipal Council, Ellore.

Order 11th January 1895 A^o 32 M.Mis.

The Government considers it desirable that the provisions of the District Municipalities Act relating to the framing and publication of byelaws should be expressed with greater clearness in the amended act. The existing provisions appear to require that the Municipal Council should publish under sec. 256(1) draft byelaws framed by it, consider such criticisms as may be made upon them and after finally adopting them submit them to Government for approval under section 255(3). It is not however clear whether or not the alterations made by Government section 255 (3) require to be again published under section 256 (1). The Legislative Department will therefore be requested to refer to the select Committee upon the amendment of Act IV of 1884,

 the question of the expediency of so amending sections 255 and 256, as to make their intention and the procedure contemplated by them more clear.

G.O., dated 11th January 1895, No. 31 M., Local and Municipal.

ABSTRACT.—Approving and confirming with remarks the bye-laws adopted by the Municipal Council, Ellore.

Order—dated 11th January 1895, Mis. No. 32 M., Local and Municipal.
