From J. P. HEWETT, Esq., C.I.E., Officiating Secretary to the Government of India, Home Department (Public), to the Chief Secretary to the Government of Madras, dated Simla, the 17th June 1895, No. 949.

I am now directed to reply to your letter, No. 6, dated the 25th January last, in which enquiry was made whether there would be any objection to altering Rule 13 of the rules regarding the asking of questions in the Council of the Governor of Madras for the purpose of making Laws and Regulations, so as to permit questions to be put without being formally read.

2. The Governor-General in Council, after consulting the Governments of Bombay, Bengal and the North-Western Provinces and Oudh, does not consider it necessary to alter the rule in the manner suggested by the Government of Madras, inasmuch as it appears to him that the rule will be sufficiently complied with if a question, instead of being read out at length, is put in any manner sanctioned by the President. The President in Council is accordingly authorised to permit questions to be put in any manner which shall sufficiently identify them if he so desires.
