CURRENT NO. 20

From,

J. V. Atkinson Esquire, Collector,
Kist

To

The Chief Secretary to Government Legislative Department

Sir,

In enclosing a copy of ⁴subsidie ⁴Rules for the conduct of Elections to the Legislative ⁴those n. p. 70. 4-7-93 Council, issued by me under the authority of G. O. No. 32 Legislative 7/12th April 93 for the election held at Bezowada in 1893, I have the honor to enquire whether I may issue the same rules for the election ensuing in August.

2 I venture to suggest the advisability of defining at the same time the exact functions of the Collector, in regard to the elections whether he is simply the recording officer, or whether the terms "general superintendence and arrangement," used in para 8 of G. O.
32nd Legislative dated 12th April 1893, invest him with any further authority, and any whether he is empowered to give decision on any point of order, or question to the interpretation of the rules, that may be raised during the conduct of the elections

I have the honor to be,
Sir

Yours most obedient servant
J. H. Atkinson

There is no time for reference to Govt, & it appears for this reason, if for another, necessary so to empower the Collector.

The rules proposed by Mr Atkinson are approved subject to the alterations directed in G.O. of 4 July 1893 No. 70 Legislative, which laid down that in the event of the balloting not being completed on the first day, ballots should take place at 9, 10, & 11 a.m.
& 12 noon on the second day 2. With reference to para 2 of his letter, Mr Atkinson will be informed that he is empowered to give a decision on any point of order or question relating to the interpretation of the rules which may be raised during the course of the elections
