H.E. to Govt & Cere
For orders.

M.R.R. Rathnasabapathi Pillai has not originally nominated by any Dist. Board though selected by several municipalities. - In G.O. of 9-8--95 No 63 by (original at board) However Govt approved an alternative nomination by the Salem Dist. Bd. in the event of M.R.R. Kalyanasandram Aiyar being elected by the Municipalities.
It seems to follow as a necessary con-sequence that the voting delegates of other Dist. Bds may vote for M.R.R. Ra--nasabapathi Pillai in that contingency & the following telegram is therefore proposed

"Your telegram further that in contingency if other voting delegates may vote for Rathnasabapathi Pillai if authorized to do so by their respective local Boards. 14-8-95

14/8/95.

It must be observed that the Salem Local Bd Board delegate has been authorized by his Board to vote for Rathnasabapathi Pillai & this has been sanctioned by Govt.
But Govt cannot give other local Boards delegates permission to vote for any particular person. They must get their instructions how they are to vote from their own Boards. W

Order regarding candidature of Ratnasabapati Pillai for League Council runs thus -

"In contingency specified voting delegates may vote for Ratnasabapati Pillai, if authorized to do so by their respective Local Boards."

May the final clause be altered to "if this is not contrary to the instructions of their respective boards". The alteration appears desirable inasmuch as the resolutions of District Boards other than Salem do not provide for alternative nominations, & it is now too late for voting delegates to obtain express instruction from their believed that voting delegates have a free hand after giving their first vote, and the collector of Trichy might interpret the last clause of the order as requiring an express authorization which would necessarily involve a formal resolution by the District Board concerned.
