THE HON'BLE MR. BLISS, C.I.E.
1 THE HON'BLE MR. GROSE, C.I.E.

FOR ORDERS.

The telegram intimates that the Secy of State has no objection to the progress of bill in the Council - [which is a reply to this Govt's telegram of 4 instant in G.O. R No. 24 Leve of 4 March 1897.

The telegram further states that a letter from the Revenue Agricultural Dept. suggesting certain amendments follows.

The concluding word of the telegram "introduction of bill need not be deferred" indicate that the Govt of India is apparently of opinion that the bill has not yet been introduced, which fact they will come to know as soon as the Select Committee report reaches them.

As it is ~~known~~ perhaps the intention of Govt that the bill should be passed into law at the next meeting of the Council, may India be asked to advise ^{in time} if there are any objections or amendments to be suggested.

This will show them that their letter is hurried up.

The select committee has amended clause 42, & the suggestion of the Govt of India has probably been anticipated
