GOVERNMENT OF MADRAS.

LEGISLATIVE DEPARTMENT.

READ—again the following papers:—

G.O., No. 185, Legislative, dated 26th December 1878.

Read—the following letter from D. FITZPATRICK, Esq., Secretary to the Government of India, Legislative Department, to the Assistant Secretary to the Government of Madras, Legislative Department, dated Fort William, 19th December 1878, No. 1584:—

I am directed to request that when any bill either pending before, or about to be introduced into, the Madras Legislative Council, is submitted for the consideration of the Government of India or for previous sanction, or when any bill is passed and is submitted for the assent of His Excellency the Governor-General, any existing law on which any of the sections are based should be noted in the margins of those sections.

Order—No. 185, Legislative, dated 26th December 1878.

Recorded.

(Signed) W. M. SCHARLIEB,
Asst. Secy. to Govt., Legislative Dept.

From the Secretary to the Government of India, Legislative Department, dated Simla, the 10th June 1897, No. 1084.

ABSTRACT.—Returning, with the assent of His Excellency the Viceroy and Governor-General, the law relating to the survey of lands and settlement of boundary disputes, with the remark that the marginal notes indicating the sources from which the various provisions have been taken should be cut out of the authentic copy.

From G. S. FORBES, Esq., Secretary to the Government of Madras, Legislative Department, to the Secretary to the Government of India, Legislative Department, dated 21st June 1897, No. 50, Legislative.

In your letter, No. 1084, dated 10th instant, returning, with the assent of His Excellency the Viceroy and Governor-General, the law relating to survey and settlement of boundary disputes, it is pointed out in paragraph 2 that marginal notes indicating the sources from which the various provisions have been taken should be cut out of the authentic copy of the Act. With reference to this, I am directed to point out that these marginal notes were inserted in accordance with the directions conveyed in Mr. Fitzpatrick's letter, No. 1584, of 19th December 1878. I am, therefore, now to inquire whether, for the future, such marginal notes should be discontinued when submitting Acts for the assent of His Excellency the Governor-General.

READ—also the following paper:—

From J. M. MACPHERSON, Esq., c.s.i., Secretary to the Government of India, Legislative Department, to the Secretary to the Government of Madras, Legislative Department, dated Simla, the 12th August 1897, No. 1390.

In reply to your letter, No. 50, dated the 21st ultimo, I am directed to state that the instructions conveyed by this department in its letter, No. 1584, of the 19th December 1878, should in future not be deemed to apply to the authentic copy of any law submitted for the assent of the Governor-General under section 40 of the Indian Councils Act, 1861. The marginal notes referred to in the above-quoted letter are obviously not intended to form part of the Act, and should, therefore, not appear in the authentic copy on which the Governor-General records his assent.
