EXPLANATORY REMARKS.

(a) The Secretary to Government, Local and Municipal Department, is also Secretary to Government, Legislative Department, and provision has been made for his salary and allowances in the budget of that department. The Assistant Secretary ceased to be employed in the Legislative Department from December 1896.

(b) This is the sanctioned scale of establishment for the Legislative Department—vide G.O., No. 915, Financial, dated 31st October 1894.
(c) The increase is due to the extra charges incurred during the absence of the clerk on Rs. 130 on privilege leave for three months.

(d) The appointment of the temporary clerk originally sanctioned for six months was continued till the 23rd August 1897, (G.O., No. 66-R., Legislative, dated 26th August 1897).

(e) The amount paid to the temporary clerk on account of his journey from Chittoor to Ootacamund and thence to Madras.
