CHIEF SECRETARIAT
-5. JAN. 1895
GOVERNMENT OF MADRAS

3 Parappanangady
7th January 18[illegible]

Sir

From the perusal of the enclosed copies of the Proceedings of the Madras Government you will see that I submitted in 1893 a memorial to the Government of India through the Madras Government for some recognition of my services on the Malabar Marriage Commission.

It has been a great principle in any civilized Government more so in the British Government of India, as is so well known, to encourage virtuous ambition by just rewards of public services. Relying on this principle I respectfully request the Madras Government to which I owe the great honour of the appointment on such an important Commission as the Malabar Commission [illegible] Marriage — Commission [illegible] to do me the simple justice of recommending me for some recognition of my humble services referred to in my memorial.

I am
Sir
Yours faithfully
Rama Varma Raja
Tamburan of Parappanad

"The object of the application is no
"doubt the grant of a title, and this Govern "-ment cannot see any ground for supporting
"it".

The Government of India was not therefore prepared to meet with what was repre-sented to be the Applicant's wishes, but he was informed "that his application "for some recognition of his services as a "member of the Malabar Marriage Commiss has been brought to the Knowledge of the vernment of India which is acquainted ith the Services referred to in his emorial."

t is respectfully Submitted that nothing s Occurred since 1893 to change the ision of Govt, nor does it appear that [illegible] the other members who served on the mmission had any titles conferred pon them for their work.

he (Commission) members of the C. were thanked their services in suitable terms ~~[illegible]~~

I think the word 'Government' should be replaced by 'Gov. in Council'. In other respects, I accept the draft order.

This being a matter of patronage, the papers should not have been sent up for the orders of Govt. Members in this way, but as the case has already been before Members, I will not object to their again passing through the same course.
