Are the two vols of Local Rules & Orders which have been submitted intended to take the place of the List of Notifiers & Rules having the force of law (with 3 supplements) which I already have? (1)

Why have these vols been printed of such an inconvenient size? They are about half an inch taller than the Act Books, with which they have of course to be uniform, & of the same size as the new edition of the Police Orders the inconvenient size of which I pointed out some time ago - Apparently the Stationers made some mistake & subject me to this notice of - Who is the person who settles the size of such publications? (2)

Why is this new publication only brought up to the end of 1895, have there 2 years ago? (3)

Ref. Note from Legislative Department dated 17th March 1898

With reference to Honorable Member's remarks regarding the size adopted for the two volumes of the Madras Local Rules and Orders recently issued, it is submitted that the size (imperial 8vo) was fixed by the Legislative Department in July 1892 when the work was first commenced, and sheets were printed off before the Honorable Member's remarks upon sizes of books were first communicated in November last.

Imperial 8vo.	10 ³ / ₈ " x 6 ⁷ / ₈ "	in
Royal 8vo	9 ⁷ / ₈ " x 6 ¹ / ₈ "	size

2. The Hon. Member is perhaps not aware of the difference in size of an imperial 8vo book, and a royal 8vo book, but these particulars have been given in office note, No. 703, dated 23rd February 1898, paragraph 1, and are quoted in the margin.

3. The Hon. Member is evidently not aware that the acts issued by the ^{Govt of} India, ^{and} Bombay Madras, and other provinces, are royal 8vo in size, and that the Bombay Local Rules and Orders issued in 1896, the Madras Code

Printed at Calcutta in 1888, and other similar books, are in imperial 8vo size, and the Madras Local Rules and Orders are uniform with them.

Please see my office note regarding the number of publications issued in this imperial 8vo size. The Board of Revenue (Land Revenue) have recently ordered copies of the Forest Manual to be printed in imperial 8vo size, uniform with the Forest Code issued in 1895.

Local Rules and Orders

The previous 4 vols are returned

The cloth bound vols. of Arts appears to be Imp. 8th as stated, but all the annual vols & the copies of Arts connected to date are smaller. It seems true that Imp. 8th is a very inconvenient size & that we had much better stick to flag B. Continue the use of it & print only in Royal 8th.

Many of the vols have increased accidentally over Imp. 8th size - thus 2 vols of Local Rules & Orders & the Plain Standing orders, for instance

(2) A note from the Superintendent of the volumes in question is put on file

(3) The work was taken up by a special clerk in June 1896; the matter then available for consideration was up to the end of 1895 only, the lists for 1896 being due in 1897. But when, in the beginning of 1897, the work was not completed, it was considered advisable to incorporate into the publication matter for 1896 also, the transcription of matter already put in by the [?] to the additional entries to be inserted in their proper places] and the rearrangement of the manuscript matter already put out in the office by the special clerk, with a view to the way of bringing the volumes up to the end of 1896, as the work of that transp

The special clerk finished his work in August 1887, and the volumes were
