MADRAS ACT OF 1898.

An Act to amend the Madras City Police Act, 1888.

WHEREAS it is expedient to amend the Madras City Police Act, 1888; It is hereby enacted as follows:— Preamble.

Addition of a proviso to section 5.

1. To section 5 of the said Act the following shall be added, namely:—

Administration of Police employed at Railway stations, &c., may be vested in the Inspector-General of Police.

Provided that the Governor in Council may, by notification in the Fort St. George Gazette, which he may cancel or vary, at any time direct that the administration of such of the Police within the City of Madras as are or may be employed at any Railway stations or on any Railway premises or within the limits of any Railway or part of any Railway situated within the limits of the City of Madras, shall be vested in the Inspector-General of Police, and from and after the issue of such notification the powers under this Act of the Commissioner and of his deputies or assistants in respect of such Police shall cease, and the Inspector-General of Police and under his control such officers as shall be appointed by the Governor in Council to be Superintendent or Assistant Superintendent of Railway Police, shall as regards such Police exercise all the powers of the Commissioner of Police under this Act, save that the power conferred on the Commissioner by section 10 shall, in respect of such Police, be exercised by the Inspector-General of Police alone.

In the name and on behalf of Her Majesty the Queen, Empress of India, I assent to this Act.
