Note. It is not usual to communicate these communications to the Executive Depts concerned, tho' the assent of the Governor-General to the ~~[illegible]~~ Bill which gives every ~~authority~~ validity to the measure is so communicated. (Please see G.O. 57/11-8-98 below) May these communications in future be communicated to the Executive Depts? It would be better for those depts to know that the Secretary of State who has to communicate any disallowance by the Crown (of an Act assented to by the Gov Genl) has conveyed intimation that the Act may be left to its operation.
