GOVERNMENT OF MADRAS.

LEGISLATIVE DEPARTMENT.

Read—again the following papers :—

G.O., No. 595, Revenue, dated 13th October 1898.

Abstract.—Transferring to the Legislative Department, for necessary action, the Draft Bill for the Registration of Births and Deaths in Rural Tracts in the Madras Presidency.

G.O., No. 68, Legislative, dated 28th October 1898.

Abstract.—Referring to the Hon'ble the Advocate-General for remarks a draft Bill for the registration of births and deaths in rural tracts.

Read—also the following paper :—

From the Advocate-General, dated Madras, 11th November 1898.

[Draft Bill for the Registration of Births and Deaths in Rural Tracts.]

The following are the only observations which I desire to offer upon the Bill :—

Clause 9.—The second proviso to this clause is taken verbatim from section 446 (2) of the City of Bombay Municipal Act, 1888, but it does not seem to be quite clear, under the clause as it stands in the Bill, that it will be the duty of the mother of an illegitimate child, in the first instance, to give information under the Act. To make this clear some such words as "it shall be the duty of the mother of such child to give information under this Act and" might be inserted after the words "illegitimate child" in the second proviso.

Clause 16.—I observe from G.O., No. 214, Revenue, dated 21st April 1898, that the Government considers that the registrar should not be empowered to correct any but clerical errors and that other errors should be reported for the orders of the Collector. Clause 16, however, as it stands, seems to prohibit any alteration, other than the correction of a clerical error, by anybody. Clause 16 seems unnecessary. The matter might be dealt with by rule under clause 22 (5).

Clause 21.—The observation of the Government of India with regard to the finality of the order of the Collector appears to be met by the remarks in G.O., No. 214, Revenue, dated 21st April 1898, paragraph (VI).

With regard to the observation of the Government of India as to the remuneration of registrars, some express provision with reference to their remuneration seems desirable.

(Signed) C. ARNOLD WHITE,
Advocate-General.

Order—No. 77, Legislative, dated 22nd November 1898.

The suggestions of the Advocate-General with regard to sections 9 and 16 of the Bill are approved, and under Rule 33 of the Rules for the conduct of business at meetings of the Council of the Governor of Fort St. George for making Laws and Regulations His Excellency the Governor is pleased to direct the publication of the Bill with the Statement of Objects and Reasons as shown in the annexure to these proceedings, in English and the vernaculars.

2. The Hon'ble Mr. Winterbotham will be requested to take charge of the Bill.

ANNEXURE.

Whereas it is expedient to make provision for the registration of births and deaths in rural tracts; It is hereby enacted as follows:—

1. This Act may be called the "Madras Registration of Births and Deaths Act, 189 ."

Section 1, Act IV of 1873 (Bengal).
,, 106 (1), Act V of 1884 (Madras).

2. The Government may, by notification, extend this Act, or any portion thereof, from a date to be specified in such notification, to any district or portion of a district situated outside the limits of the city of Madras and of the municipalities constituted under the Madras District Municipalities Act, 1884.

3. In this Act, unless there be something repugnant in the subject or context, a "village" means any local area now recognised as a village, or which may hereafter be declared by Government to be a village, and included in any district or portion of a district to which the provisions of this Act have been extended.

"Registrar" means a person appointed registrar of births and deaths under section 5 of this Act.

Section 106 (2), Act V of 1884 (Madras).

4. On the publication of the notification referred to in section 2 of this Act, the District Collector shall cause to be proclaimed by notices posted at the village chavadi or other conspicuous place and by beat of drum in every village within the area so notified and by publication in the District Gazette that registration of births and deaths is compulsory in the district or part of the district concerned.

Section 2 of Act IV of 1873 (Bengal).
,, 243 ,, IV of 1884 (Madras).
,, 181 ,, II of 1888 (Bengal).
,, 442 ,, III ,, (Bombay).

5. From the date on which such notification comes into force, the Collector shall cause a register of all births and deaths to be kept in each village, and for this purpose he may divide the village into such wards as he thinks fit, and shall appoint a person to be registrar of births and deaths within the village, if not divided into wards or, in the case of the division of the village into wards, for every ward, he shall appoint a person to be registrar of births and deaths in such ward.

6. Every such registrar shall, unless otherwise expressly authorised by the Collector in writing, reside within the village or ward of which he is the registrar, and shall cause his name, with the addition of registrar of births and deaths for the village or ward for which he is so appointed, written in the vernacular language of the district, to be placed in some conspicuous place on or near the outer door of his dwelling house.

Provided that a person not required to give information in the first instance, but only in default of some other person, shall not be bound to give information under this Act if it is shown that he had reasonable cause to suppose that the information had been or would be duly given.

12. In case any person is found dead in any place, or under any circumstances not covered by section 11, it shall be the duty of the head of the village, in which the body is found, or the officer in charge of the police station within the limits of which the village is included, to give forthwith to the best of his knowledge and belief, to the registrar, such information of the particulars required to be registered concerning such death as the informant possesses.

Section 447, Act III of 1888 (Bombay).
„ 45 (c), Criminal Procedure Code.

13. Notwithstanding anything contained in sections 9 and 11 of this Act—

(1) In the case of persons being born or dying in any hospital, it shall be the duty of the Medical officer in charge forthwith to send a notice in writing to the registrar of the occurrence of any birth or death in the hospital under his charge containing the several particulars required to complete the forms prescribed under section 7;

Section 400, Act I of 1884 (Madras).
„ 248 (1), Act IV of 1884 (Madras).
„ 186, second proviso, Act II of 1888 (Bengal)

(2) In the case of persons being born or dying in any choultry, chattram, hotel, boarding house, lodging house, tavern, arrack or toddy shop or other place of public resort, it shall be the duty of the owner, keeper or person in charge thereof, to give the information required under sections 9 and 11 within the time and in the manner specified therein.

14. Every person who has orally given to a registrar any information required under this Act shall sign in the register his name, description and place of abode, and, if he cannot write, shall put his mark in the register to his name, description and place of abode, these particulars being in such case entered by the registrar:

Section 403 (1), Act I of 1884 (Madras).
„ 249 (1), Act IV „ „
„ 189, Act II of 1888 (Bengal).

Provided that, in the case of a person being born or dying in any hospital, the registration of the birth or death shall be deemed to be completed by the entry, in the register, of the written notice received from the Medical officer in charge of the said hospital prescribed in section 13 (1) without the signature of the Medical officer to the entry in such register. This proviso shall also apply in the case of information, touching any birth or death, given in writing by any person.

Section 189, second proviso, Act II of 1888 (Bengal).
Section 403 (2), Act I of 1884 (Madras).
„ 249 (3), Act IV „ „

15. The Registrar shall, as soon as the registration has been completed, give, on application, free of all charge, to the person who gives information of the birth of a child an extract under his hand from the register relating to such birth.

Section 403 (2), Act I of 1884 (Madras).
„ 249 „ IV „ „

16. (1) When the birth of any child has been registered and the name, if any by which it was registered, is altered or, if it was registered without a name when a name is given to it, the parent or guardian of such child or other person procuring such name to be altered or given may, within twelve months next after the registration of the birth, deliver to the registrar such certificate as hereinafter mentioned, and the registrar, upon the receipt of that certificate, shall, without any erasure of the original entry, forthwith enter in the register book the name mentioned in the certificate as having been given to the child.

Section 248-A, Act IV of 1884 (Madras).
„ 458, Act III of 1888 (Bombay).

(2) The certificate shall be in such form as may from time to time be prescribed by the Governor in Council, and, in the case of a Christian, shall be signed by the minister of religion or person who performed the rite of baptism upon which the name was given or altered, or, if the child is not baptized or is not a Christian, shall be signed by the father, mother or guardian of the child or other person procuring the name of the child to be given or altered.

(3) Every minister of religion or person who performs the rite of baptism shall deliver the certificate required by this section on demand, on payment of a fee not exceeding one rupee.

Section 249 (4) of Act IV of 1884 (Madras).

17. Any person, may at all reasonable times, on payment of a fee of four annas for each visit, search, in the presence of the registrar, any register of births and deaths, and may on payment of a further fee of four annas require the registrar to give an extract under his hand from such register relating to any birth or death registered therein.

Section 249 (5) of Act IV of 1884 (Madras).

The registrar shall have the custody of the registers of births and deaths for the village or ward for which he has been appointed, and all extracts therefrom given under this section shall be certified by him as provided in section 76 of the Indian Evidence Act, 1872, and may be produced in proof of the entries of which they purport to be copies.

18. Any person who—

(1) neglects or refuses or intentionally omits to give any information which it is his duty to give under sections 9, 10, 11 and 13 (2) of this Act; or

(2) wilfully gives, or causes to be given, for the purpose of being inserted in any register of births or deaths, any false information touching any of the particulars required to be known and registered; or

Section 249 (1) of Act IV of 1884 (Madras).

(3) refuses or neglects to sign his name, description and place of abode or to put his mark in the register to such particulars in contravention of section 14 of this Act shall, on conviction before a magistrate, be liable to a fine not exceeding Rs. 10.

19. No criminal complaint under the last preceding section shall be entertained by any magistrate which is not preferred under the orders of a Tahsildar or an officer superior to a Tahsildar.

20. The Collector may, of his own motion or on complaint and after enquiry, fine, suspend, dismiss or remove any registrar for misconduct or for neglect of duty or incapacity as such registrar or for non-residence in the village without the permission of the Collector, and shall record his reasons for so doing in writing.

21. The Governor in Council may from time to time make rules:—

(1) prescribing the forms of registers of births and deaths required to be kept under this Act, and the form of certificate referred to in section 16 (2);

(2) for the inspection and examination of the registers maintained under section 5;

(3) for the conduct of the duties of the registrar during his absence on other duty or on account of illness or other causes;

(4) for the custody, production and transfer of the registers and other records kept by registrars;

(5) for the correction of clerical errors which may be discovered in the registers of births or registers of deaths.

(6) generally, to carry out the provisions of this Act.

STATEMENT OF OBJECTS AND REASONS.

Since the passing of the Madras District Municipalities Act, 1884 (IV of 1884), the registration of births and deaths has been compulsory in municipal towns under the provisions of sections 243 to 249 of that Act. During the thirteen years that these provisions have been in operation, they have worked smoothly. It now appears to the Government that the time has come when power should be taken to bring into force similar provisions in non-municipal areas, in which at present the reporting of domestic occurrences is not legally obligatory. Until this is done, the registration of vital statistics in this Presidency taken as a whole must continue to be inaccurate and incomplete. The draft Bill accordingly takes power to extend the system of compulsory registration to the Presidency generally, but it is not proposed to do this at once. The Bill leaves it to the Government to bring its provisions into effect in particular areas at its discretion. The extension will be made cautiously and gradually; large villages or rather towns with a population of 5,000 and upwards, being first brought under the operation of the proposed Act.

Registration of Births and Deaths.

Transferring to the Legislative Department, for necessary action, the draft Bill for the re in rural tracts in the Madras Presidency.

GOVERNMENT OF MADRAS.

REVENUE DEPARTMENT.

Read—the following letter from H. LUSON, Esq., Deputy Secretary to the Government of India (Home Department—Sanitary), to the Secretary to the Government of Madras, Revenue Department, dated Simla, the 4th August 1898, No. 1903 :—

I am directed to acknowledge the receipt of your letter No. 215, Revenue, dated the 21st April 1898, forwarding, for the consideration of the Government of India, a draft of a Bill for the registration of births and deaths in rural tracts in the Madras Presidency, and requesting the sanction of the Governor-General in Council to its introduction into the local Legislative Council.

2. In reply I am to convey the sanction of the Governor-General in Council to the introduction of the Bill as requested. The Government of India have observed that the Bill makes no express provision for the remuneration of the registrars of births and deaths, and that the order of the Collector under section 21 of the Bill appears to be intended to be final. In calling attention to those points, I am to say that the Governor-General in Council leaves it to the Government of Madras to decide whether alterations should not be made in the Bill in connection with them.

Order—No. 595, Revenue, dated 13th October 1898.

Miscellaneous.

The draft Bill for the registration of births and deaths in rural tracts will be transferred to the Legislative Department for necessary action.

(2) In the case of persons being born or dying in any choultry, chattram, hotel, boarding house, lodging house, tavern, arrack or toddy shop or other place of public resort, it shall be the duty of the owner, keeper or person in charge thereof, to give the information required under sections 9 and 11 within the time and in the manner specified therein.

14. Every person who has orally given to a registrar any information required under this Act shall sign in the register his name, description and place of abode, and, if he cannot write, shall put his mark in the register to his name, description and place of abode, these particulars being in such case entered by the registrar.

Section 403 (1), Act I of 1884 (Madras).
" 249 (1), Act IV " "
" 189, Act II of 1888 (Bengal).

Provided that, in the case of a person being born or dying in any hospital, the registration of the birth or death shall be deemed to be completed by the entry, in the register, of the written notice received from the Medical officer in charge of the said hospital prescribed in section 13 (1) without the signature of the Medical officer to the entry in such register. This proviso shall also apply in the case of information, touching any birth or death, given in writing by any person.

a name is given to it, the parent or guardian of such child or other person procuring such name to be altered or given may, within twelve months next after the registration of the birth, deliver to the registrar such certificate as hereinafter mentioned, and the registrar, upon the receipt of that certificate, shall, without any erasure of the original entry, forthwith enter in the register book the name mentioned in the certificate as having been given to the child.

(2) The certificate shall be in such form as may from time to time be prescribed by the Governor in Council, and, in the case of a Christian, shall be signed by the minister of religion or person who performed the rite of baptism upon which the name was given or altered, or, if the child is not baptized or is not a Christian, shall be signed by the father, mother or guardian of the child or other person procuring the name of the child to be given or altered.

(3) Every minister of religion or person who performs the rite of baptism shall deliver the certificate required by this section on demand, on payment of a fee not exceeding one rupee.

18. Any person, may at all reasonable times, on payment of a fee of four annas for each visit, search, in the presence of the registrar, any register of births and deaths, and may on payment of a further fee of four annas require the registrar to give an extract under his hand from such register relating to any birth or death registered therein.

Section 249 (4) of Act IV of 1884 (Madras).

The registrar shall have the custody of the registers of births and deaths for the village or ward for which he has been appointed, and all extracts therefrom given under this section shall be certified by him as provided in section 76 of the Indian Evidence Act, 1872, and may be produced in proof of the entries of which they purport to be copies.

Section 249 (5) of Act IV of 1884 (Madras).

19. Any person who—

(2) wilfully gives, or causes to be given, for the purpose of being inserted in any register of births or deaths, any false information touching any of the particulars required to be known and registered; or

(3) refuses or neglects to sign his name, description and place of abode or to put his mark in the register to such particulars in contravention of section 14 of this Act

shall, on conviction before a magistrate, be liable to a fine not exceeding Rs. 10.

Section 249 (1) of Act IV of 1884 (Madras).

20. No criminal complaint under the last preceding section shall be entertained by any magistrate which is not preferred under the orders of a Tahsildar or an officer superior to a Tahsildar.

21. The Collector may, of his own motion or on complaint and after enquiry, fine, suspend, dismiss or remove any registrar for misconduct or for neglect of duty or incapacity as such registrar or for non-residence in the village without the permission of the Collector, and shall record his reasons for so doing in writing.

22. The Governor in Council may from time to time make rules:—

(1) prescribing the forms of registers of births and deaths required to be kept under this Act, and the form of certificate referred to in section 17 (2);

(2) for the inspection and examination of the registers maintained under section 5;

(3) for the conduct of the duties of the registrar during his absence on other duty or on account of illness or other causes;

(4) for the custody, production and transfer of the registers and other records kept by registrars;

(5) for the correction of clerical errors which may be discovered in the registers of births or registers of deaths.

(6) generally, to carry out the provisions of this Act.

STATEMENT OF OBJECTS AND REASONS.

Since the passing of the Madras District Municipalities Act, 1884 (IV of 1884), the registration of births and deaths has been compulsory in municipal towns under the provisions of sections 243 to 249 of that Act. During the thirteen years that these provisions have been in operation, they have worked smoothly. It now appears to the Government that the time has come when power should be taken to bring into force similar provisions in non-municipal areas, in which at present the reporting of domestic occurrences is not legally obligatory. Until this is done, the registration of vital statistics in this Presidency taken as a whole must continue to be inaccurate and incomplete. The draft Bill accordingly takes power to extend the system of compulsory registration to the Presidency generally, but it is not proposed to do this at once. The Bill leaves it to the Government to bring its provisions into effect in particular areas at its discretion. The extension will be made cautiously and gradually; large villages or rather towns with a population of 5,000 and upwards, ~~or what are called major Unions~~, being first brought under the operation of the proposed Act.

Revenue Department

To the Under Secretary.

Under Rule 33 of the Rules for the Conduct of business at Meetings of the Council of the Governor of Fort St. George for making Laws and Regulations the Legislative Department proposes to publish the Bill for the Registration of Births and Deaths in rural tracts, together with the Statement of Objects and Reasons. ~~This will remove the necessity of making a motion in the Council for leave to introduce the Bill (Rule 31).~~

2. At the suggestion of the Advocate General, the following alterations have been made in the draft Bill —

(i) Clause 9. This has been ~~supplement~~ amplified so as to make it clear that in the case of an illegitimate child it shall be the duty of the mother of such child to give information under the Act.

(ii) Clause 16. This has been omitted as unnecessary nd the matter left to be dealt ith by rule under clause 22(5).

rom the remarks of Govt in clause
(ii) of G. Order 214 Rev dt 21-4-98, G the Advocate General observes that, while Govt is of opinion that the Registrars should not be empowered to correct any but clerical errors and that other errors should be reported for the orders of the Collector, clause 16

Opinion dt 11-11-98

as it stands seems to prohibit any alteration, other than the correction of a clerical error,
by anybody.

3. The Advocate General also makes the following ~~remarks~~ remarks with reference to the observations of the Govt of India in para 2 of its letter No 1213 (H.B) in G.O. $\frac{595 \text{ Rev}}{13.10.98}$ H dt 6-8-98, conveying its sanction to the introduction of the Bill.

(a) the orders of the Collector under ~~clause~~ section 21 appears to be intended to be final." On this subject, the Board of Rev in para and no further. The Government however thought that no special provision was necessary, as "when

"the powers of the Collector under the "section are exercised by a Division
"Officer, his proceedings will, under

Clause (vi) of G.O. $\frac{214}{21.4.98}$ Rev G

"Regulation VII of 1828, be subject
"in the ordinary way, to the District
"Collector's revision." The Advocate General states that the observation of the Govt of India appear to be met by the above remarks of Govt

(b) The second point regarding which the Govt of India suggested that provision should be made in the Bill was about the remuneration of Registrars. With reference to the remarks of the Govt of India, the Advocate General thinks that some express provision in the matter appears desirable. Attention is in this connection, invited to K remarks in para 2 of the Office note under G. Order $\frac{595}{13.10.98}$ (vide also items L (i) and (ii) of para 13 of G. Order $\frac{476}{21.4.98}$ Rev).
It will be seen that the Bill relates only to the Registration of births and deaths in rural tracts, i.e. to all ot included within any Municipal imits; that the work of registration to be done not by any special stablishment entertained for e purpose, but to be entrusted the Village Accountant or the Village ads; and that proposals for the ayment of a small fee of Rs 2 per [illegible] and the grant of rewards for accurate gistration to these Officers have een negatived by Govt. Moreover e absence of any specific legal rovision for the payment of remuneration will not, it is submitted, preclude e entertainment of a special aid agency; there is no specific rovision in the matter either in e District or the Madras Muni-ipal Act.

The ~~expression~~ phrase
'without fee or reward' in Clause
8 of the Bill referred to in the Legislative Dept. Office note, would seem to have been made with a view to prohibit the receipt of any fee or reward by the registrar from the persons reporting information under the Act, and not to any remuneration which may be sanctioned
