SUBJECT:

Telegram from the Honble M R R
Cjam buluipa made re hearing of a counsel of Lord Krishna dos Bela mukunda dos.

FOR ORDERS

The telegram is dated 30th instant but it was received only on the 31st.

The notice of motion is therefore taken by a day under Rule 23.

Orders are solicited as to whether the motion may be put in the agenda paper. Under the proviso to the same rule the President has a discretionary power to admit notices of motions ~~without the~~ that are late. Council Rule 63 says that Counsel can be heard only on the motion of a member & it has been ruled in 1895 that notices of such motions is necessary.

In the Case of the Telegram from Mr. Chanier attached. I have "used to him pointing out the rules.

The notice is left under Rule 23, and therefore it should not be entered in the Agenda paper, - unless the President, under the Provision, gives permission.
It does not give permission.

This manner of proceeding for or against a Bill, is, ^{considered} ~~rather~~ of doubtful expediency. There are other ways of getting a person's views before Council, which are not open to the same objection.

OOTACAMUND 3-6-99

G.P. No. 517 T 10-1-99 2000000

Apply to be heard?

Mr. Bashyam Aggarwal whom I consulted Corriden that he will give no permission

Sylk's Hotel

Colacacumund

June 5 1899

Dear Mr Hammick:

Many thanks for your letter - which I received on Saturday just - before leaving Madras. Krishnadoss - the person interested, who instructs me, knew (of course) that notices had been informally given; but he desired me to be present at the place of meeting tomorrow, June 6th, and if I am refused permission to appear - we can only accept the position as one we have no power to contend against.

Of course my own interest is entirely impersonal. I am ready to represent the client: if permitted: If not ~~dis~~ permitted the disappointment will not be mine - only the client's.

Might I ask you then to kindly let it - be known tomorrow that Council awaits permission.?

And may I further ask you to be ^{very} kind as to let me have a line either by bearer or, for certain, later on, telling me

1. ^(a) Where, - ^(b) when the Council meets.
2. ^(a) Where I ~~shall~~ ^(b) when I ~~should~~ should be in attendance. -

(I wish to robe, I)

3. If I shall be fetched from that place - if admitted at all. -

Thanking you extremely: Yours sincerely
D. Chamberlain.

NOTE FOR THE His Excellency -

Mr. Chamier on behalf of one Kriha Doss has arrived in Ottawa and asks whether he may appear at tomorrow's Council and apply to be heard -

The rule is 63. of the Rules for the conduct of business - at page 37 -

I do not feel certain ^{whether} ~~that~~ under the rule as it stands, a person applying may appear although no motion has been made that he shall be heard - The rule, does not appear very clear -

In Mr. Chamier's case altho' he telegraphed to be heard, no notice of any motion has been given that he may be heard & therefore except by the express permission of His Excellency, he cannot be heard - But can he in person apply to be heard?

— Mr. Bashyam Aggarwal whom I consulted considers that the rule gives no permission body to appear unless there is a motion that he be heard before the Council.

In Mr. Chamier's case there is no motion - as no notice has been given - May I tell him that he cannot make his application in person to-morrow at the Council as no notice of any motion that he be heard has been given -

Mr. Chamier has only just written today he is in Odessa & wishes to appear to-morrow the matter would have been submitted earlier for His Excellency's orders.
