To—the Secretary to Government, Legislative Department.
Dated—Mylapore, the 15th May 1899.

With reference to G.O., No. 10-A P., dated 18th April 1899, communicated to me under G.O., Mis. No. 649 P., dated 1st May 1899, in the matter of plague inspection at Tadpatri, I have the honour to request the favour of instructions whether I am at liberty to make use of it in public print. As questions in this matter were asked at Council meetings in the interest of people, I presume the information furnished to me in the matter subsequently must be available for the public for their satisfaction in the same way as the answers which are immediately published. As, however, such papers are not generally placed by Government at the disposal of the press and are only communicated to members for information, I beg to be favoured with instructions as to whether in all such cases members can give information to the public through the press or other means when they see the matter is sufficiently important.

In the present case I presume that the action of Government will be gratefully appreciated by the people; hence my desire to publish it, if unobjectionable.

Order—No. 78, Legislative, dated 30th June 1899.

The Hon'ble M.R.Ry. Jambulingam Mudaliyar will be informed that the Government cannot consent to any order marked as confidential being communicated to the press even in cases where such order may be communicated to an Honourable member in answer to a question put in Council.

No. 649 P., dated 1st May 1899, in the matter of plague inspection at Tadpatri, I have the honour to request the favour of instructions whether I am at liberty to make use of it in public print. As questions in this matter were asked at Council meetings in the interest of people, I presume the information furnished to me in the matter subsequently must be available for the public for their satisfaction in the same way as the answers which are immediately published. As, however, such papers are not generally placed by Government at the disposal of the press and are only communicated to members for information, I beg to be favoured with instructions as to whether in all such cases members can give information to the public through the press or other means when they see the matter is sufficiently important.

In the present case I presume that the action of Government will be gratefully appreciated by the people; hence my desire to publish it, if unobjectionable.

Order—No. 78, Legislative, dated 30th June 1899.

The Hon'ble M.R.Ry. Jambulingam Mudaliyar will be informed that the Government cannot consent to any order marked as confidential being communicated to the press even in cases where such order may be communicated to an Honourable member in answer to a question put in Council.

G.O., Mis. No. 10-A P., dated 18th April 1899.

From the Hon'ble M.R.Ry. C. Jambulingam Mudaliyar Avargal, dated 15th May 1899.

The Hon'ble M.R.Ry. Jambulingam Mudaliyar enquires whether G.O., No. 10-A P., * dated 18th April 1899, communicated to him with G.O., No. 649 P., * dated 1st May 1899, may be made use of in public print, and whether in all such cases Honourable members can give information to the public through the press when they see such a course advisable. G.O., No. 10-A P., dated 18th April 1899, dealing with the conduct of some members of the Plague staff at the Tadpatri Railway station is a confidential paper.

It is submitted with regard to the general question raised that the Hon'ble Mr. Jambulingam Mudaliyar may be told that Government cannot consent to any order marked as confidential being communicated to the public press even in cases where the order may be communicated to an Honourable member in answer to a question put in Council.

2. As regards the particular Government Order in question there does not seem to be any very grave objection to its publication. It is, however, now two months old, and even if its publication were sanctioned it would not be news to any one interested.

I accept the conclusions set forth in the office-note.

GOVERNMENT OF MADRAS.

LEGISLATIVE DEPARTMENT.

Read—the following paper :—

Letter—from the Hon'ble Rao Bahadur M.R.Ry. C. JAMBULINGAM MUDALIYAR
Avargal, Member, Legislative Council.
To—the Secretary to Government, Legislative Department.
Dated—Mylapore, the 15th May 1899.

With reference to G.O., No. 10-A P., dated 18th April 1899, communicated to me under G.O., Mis. No. 649 P., dated 1st May 1899, in the matter of plague inspection at Tadpatri, I have the honour to request the favour of instructions whether I am at liberty to make use of it in public print. As questions in this matter were asked at Council meetings in the interest of people, I presume the information furnished to me in the matter subsequently must be available for the public for their satisfaction in the same way as the answers which are immediately published. As, however, such papers are not generally placed by Government at the disposal of the press and are only communicated to members for information, I beg to be favoured with instructions as to whether in all such cases members can give information to the public through the press or other means when they see the matter is sufficiently important.

In the present case I presume that the action of Government will be gratefully appreciated by the people; hence my desire to publish it, if unobjectionable.

Order—No. 78, Legislative, dated 30th June 1899.

The Hon'ble M.R.Ry. Jambulingam Mudaliyar will be informed that the Government cannot consent to any order marked as confidential being communicated to the press even in cases where such order may be communicated to an Honourable member in answer to a question put in Council.

Ag. Secretary to Government.
