To

Chief Secretary to Government

Sir,

On the 14th of last June the Government were pleased to record their resolution in a representation from the Marine Board of the 4th of the same month, to apply to the Honorable Court of Directors for a supply of 250 copies of the late Commander Fells Chart of the Coromandel Coast. No tidings of their dispatch have however been received, and as they are much required I am directed to solicit that the Honorable Court may be again addressed on the subject, and that at least 50 copies may be sent overland, and the remainder by the first ship via the Cape.

I have the honor to be,

Sir,

Your most obedient Servant
