Officer Comd^g Quilon.

(Dated 13 May 1857 No 184)

Minister, 22^d May 1857

The P. R. the Govr.

- as in Council is pleased to permit Lieut. May of the Indian Army to proceed to Europe for the benefit of his health and to embark from Cochin, as recommended in the Medical Certificate submitted with the foregoing letter. Subject to the confirmation of the Govr of Bombay.

Ordered that the following letter be despatched:

I do hereby Certify that in consequence of the present state of Lieutenant May's health and peculiarity of his case, it would in my opinion be highly detrimental if not fatal to him to return to Bombay previous to his embarkation to Europe and I therefore consider it absolutely necessary that he should embark from Cochin.
