From

The Marine Board.

14th April 1858.

With reference to the call made upon them, state that they cannot furnish a reliable estimate of the expenses for the alterations to be made in the Coromandel; think that all the alterations, excepting those of a trivial nature, should be undertaken at Calcutta, and considered

Communicated to the Mar-Board with reference to their suggestions for facilitating the navigation in question

Have no objection to the alteration being executed at Calcutta, if it were probable that the Vessel would soon visit that Port; wish to know whether the desired work might not be done wholly or in part at Rangoon or Moulanin provided that it would not that a week or two would be sufficient for all that is required.

18

From the Same.

25th April No 162.

Reports the arrival of the 'Coromandel' from Rangoon on the 24th inst.
state that she will be required to leave on the 29th for Andamarry, to convey thence to Rangoon, a detachment of the 4th Reg^t.

A-S. propose that the steamer shall remain at Rangoon until the 8th June with the view of avoiding the risk of encountering bad weather, and thence proceed direct to Canada, for taking down the steam bridge and boats there, to Cam-ben.

interfere with the employment of the steamer when her services are urgently required.

Approve the arrangements proposed by the Board, and communicate them to Commander Campbell, with instructions to carry them out.
