Fort Saint George, Marine Consultation, 21st July 1857.

No. 9. MINUTE OF CONSULTATION, No. 279; dated 14th July 1857.

Resolved that as the "Scindian" Steamer is understood to be available at Bombay, the Marine Board be instructed to take measures for engaging it for this Government with a view to its being employed in the conveyance of Military Stores and Treasure, and on the other occasions on which Government is likely to require at this time the services of such a Vessel. The "Scindian" is to be ordered round to Madras immediately, if an engagement is entered into with its Owners or Agents.
