Fort Saint George, Marine Consultation, 22nd September 1857.

No. 28. From Captain C. D. CAMPBELL, I. N. Commanding H. C. S. V. "Coromandel" and Senior Naval Officer ; to the Chief Secretary to Government, Fort Saint George, dated Madras, 27th August 1857, No 139.

SIR,

I have the honor to report the arrival of the H. C. S. V. "Coromandel" at this anchorage under my Command from Rangoon on the 18th Instant, with a detachment of the 2nd Madras Fusiliers on board part of which were landed at Negapatam yesterday morning, and the remaining 35 men of the 2nd and other Sick native details have come on to land here under Command of Captain Kempster, 6th Regiment Native Infantry.

The "Coromandel" experienced strong winds and heavy Sea after leaving Rangoon and all across the Bay, which added to the unfortunate delay caused at Calcutta in repairing injuries received from a Pilot Brig having fallen in foul of her off the Sandheads when proceeding from Madras, has caused her voyage to be more protracted by several days than I had hoped in executing the important duty on which she was despatched.

The Commodore experienced strong winds and heavy sea after leaving Hongkong and all across the Bay which added to the unfortunate delay caused at Canton in repairing injuries sustained from a pilot boat having fallen in foul of her off the sandheads when proceeding from Macao has caused her voyage to be by several days than I had hoped in executing the important duty in which she was dispatched.

Yours most obedient servant

C. D. Campbell
