Sir,

dated 27 January 1857. N^o 312.

I have the honor by desire of the Marine Board to inform you that, in compliance with the orders conveyed in Extract Minutes of Consultation marginally noted, they engaged passage to London in the ship Victory for the 14 Stokers of the H. C. Steamer Coromandel therein referred to, at £/23/ twenty three pounds or /230/ two hundred and thirty Rupees each, payable on embarkation, and that the vessel left the Roads yesterday afternoon.

Dated 19th December
1856 N^o 390 Marine Department.

2 No earlier opportunity has occurred of dispatching these men.

3 The Commander of the Victory sails sails his ship on temperance principles, and declined furnishing spirits to the Stokers. The Board however considered that they were entitled to expect a moderate allowance. In the "Goromandel" they had one third of a pint a day. In the "Victory" they have been allowed a quarter of a pint, and the Commisary General at the request of the Board has supplied a sufficient quantity for the passage home.

4 It was also found necessary to supply 6 hammocks for the use of these men
