SIR,

I have the honor by desire of the Marine Board to forward the accompanying Bill for refund of Rupees (10-8-9) Ten, Annas eight and Pice nine, levied on the Schooner "Baillie Nicol Jarvie" as the Registry Fees payable under Section 16 of Act XXVII of 1850 for the past year, and to request that you will obtain the sanction of the Right Honorable the Governor in Council for the amount being paid.

2. The Captain asserted that the dues had been levied in Calcutta, but in the absence of a Certificate to that effect, the Registrar of Seamen was forced to levy it again. A Certificate of payment at Calcutta has now been produced and accompanies the present application.
