SIR,

There being nine individuals of the Crew of Her Majesty's Ship under my Command so bad in a state of health as to render their removal from the climate of India absolutely necessary, I have the honor to request that you will allow arrangements to be made for their being sent to England on the same terms and in the same manner as the Invalids from Her Majesty's and the Honorable East India Company's Forces are now forwarded to their Native Country.

I have further to acquaint you that I am authorized by the regulations of Her Majesty's Navy to make this application to you and that the men in question will be sent to the General Hospital, Madras, to-morrow.
