Total Company's Rupees two thousand six hundred and seventeen, Annas two, pice six.

As I intend leaving India by the Steamer of the 27th Instant, I respectfully request the favor of an early reply.

Extract from a letter from the Military Paymaster, Indian Navy Department, Bombay, No. 1200, dated 9th August 1858; to Lieutenant E. R. May, Indian Navy, Madras.

Para: 1. I have the honor, with reference to your letter to the address of the Deputy Marine Paymaster and to the Abstract accompanying it, to inform you, that in the absence of a General Order permitting you to reside on shore on Medical Certificate, I am unable to realize the amount of your pay and house rent for June last.

2nd. Presuming however, you are in possession of the necessary document, a last pay Certificate, I would suggest your obtaining the advances you are entitled to from the Madras Authorities.

3rd. On your obtaining permission to proceed to England on Medical Certificate, you should draw your Indian Pay and house rent up to the day previous to your departure and you will be entitled to three months' advance at Rupees one hundred and sixty one, Annas eight and Pies one, if on the new Furlough rules; if on the old, to six months at Rupees one hundred and thirty four, Annas eleven, and Pie one, per mensem, together with Rupees one thousand two hundred as Passage Money.

4th. Before your departure, I request you will have the goodness to obtain from the Madras Authorities, and send to this Department, a statement of the advances received by you, forwarding also the Abstracts noted in the margin, and a Certificate from the Master Attendant, showing the date of your departure and the name of the Vessel in which you proceed, these documents will enable me to send a last pay Certificate for you to England.
