Fort Saint George, Marine Consultation, 30th November 1858.

No. 3. From J. J. FRANKLIN, Esq., Superintendent of Marine; to W. H. BAYLEY, Esq., Acting Secretary to Government, Fort St. George, dated 24th November 1858, No. 4764.

SIR,

I have the honor to annex copy of a Telegram received this day from the Chief Secretary, and to suggest that a Telegram be sent to Lieutenant Stradling at Mangalore, conveying to him instructions to touch at Cochin, Quilon, Trevandrum and Galle, for the purpose of receiving the Governor and party, if found at either of those places.

2. I have further to solicit that Lieutenant Hopkins of the "Dalhousie" may be directed by Telegram to return from Mangalore to Madras, and to bring with him a party of 35 Rebel Prisoners. This Vessel having been ordered to Calcutta with a part of Her Majesty's 29th, I did not anticipate her arrival at Mangalore before the first week in December at the earliest. I have noticed however that the "Sidney" is reported to have carried a part of this Regiment up; and as it is certain that the "Coromandel" has likewise been employed on a similar service it is probable that the "Dalhousie" would not be required, and that she has carried out her original instructions, which would have brought her to Mangalore, about the 21st or 22nd. Hence the necessity of telegraphing.

TELEGRAM from the Chief Secretary to Government; to J. J. FRANKLIN, Esq., Superintendent of Marine, dated 23rd November 1858, No. 191.

You are directed to arrange with Mr. Bayley, as to the future movements of the "Coromandel." Supposing that she is ordered back to Madras, the Governor wishes her to call at Cochin, Quilon, Trevandrum and Galle, so that, if she finds us at any of these places she may take us on board and so relieve the "Feroze." I have communicated accordingly with the Collector of Canara.

No. 4. ORDER THEREON, No. 468; dated 25th November 1858.

Ordered that the following Telegrams be despatched:

To Lieutenant Stradling, Indian Navy, Commander of the "Coromandel," Mangalore.

You are to touch at Cochin, Quilon, Trevandrum and Galle, for the purpose of receiving on Board the Governor and party, if found at either of these places.

To Lieutenant Hopkins, Indian Navy, Commander of the "Dalhousie," Mangalore.

You are to return from Mangalore to Madras and to bring with you a party of thirty five Rebel Prisoners.

(Signed) W. H. BAYLEY,

Acting Secretary to Government.
