Sir,

From a letter to my address from W^m John Edwards dated Portsea the 18th December 1857 it appears that William Saunders a Seaman on board H. M. S. Hastings whose name was omitted from the return of unpaid Shares of Burmah donation Batta forwarded by this Office for transmission to England is a different person from William Saunders of H. M. S. Styx whose share has been paid at Madras, I have therefore the honor at the instance of W^m Edwards to state that the first named individual is entitled to Rupees 38 on account of Six months Burmah donation Batta, and to request that directions may be issued for the remittance of the amount to England, and that the Honorable the Court of Directors be advised of the same
