My dear Mr. Gifford
The lady in question is on board the "Plover"
which is the common name for the ship. I am sorry to hear that you have been inhabiting, but he declined being
your son took them to the ship and continues to be with the ship.

Dearest

2/10/12
last night I was in the Regatta
and I think the
frigate had better
be sent there - Bengal - not to be sent there
for she is very expensive, but carries a few men for her size, and I think they will expect her at Calcutta although the Commander does not want to go there

Yours very truly

W. H. Audin

If the date will be before the next big steamer the engineers have better
