Proceedings of the Madras Government, Marine Department, for the month of November 1859.

No. 23. Read the following letter from JOHN J. FRANKLIN, Esq., Superintendent of Marine; to T. PYCROFT, Esq., Chief Secretary to Government, Fort Saint George, dated 25th November 1859, No. 4654.

I have the honor to inform you that the Officer in command of the Northern Division of the Army has brought to notice that on a detail of the 2nd Supplemental Company of the 5th Battalion of Artillery, which was embarked at Madras on the "Prince Arthur," leaving the vessel at Vizagapatam on the 13th October last, they solicited permission to get their bundles from the hold (probably a baggage room) which contained their regimental necessaries and other clothing, but were refused by the Commander, and consequently nine bundles belonging to them were not landed, which has caused them much inconvenience. General Tulloch further expresses a hope that Commanders of Steamers will be instructed not to offer needless opposition to men desirous in this way of securing their own property.

2. Inquiries for the missing bundles have been made at Madras without success, and they may still be on board the vessel. I would solicit that application be made to the Bombay Government with the view of ascertaining from Commander Twynam what has become of them. If on board, they should be sent to Madras by an early opportunity.

No. 24. To THE SECRETARY TO THE GOVERNMENT OF BOMBAY, dated Fort Saint George, 30th November 1859, No. 604.

SIR,

In forwarding to you the accompanying copy of a letter 25th November 1859, No. 4654. from the Superintendent of Marine, I am directed by the Honorable the Governor in Council to request that Commander Twynam may, if at Bombay, be instructed to ascertain if the missing bundles referred to, containing regimental necessaries and other clothing belonging to the 2nd Supplemental Company of the 5th Battalion of Artillery, are still on board the "Prince Arthur" and, if so, to forward them at once to Madras.

(Signed) T. PYCROFT,
Chief Secretary.
