No. 847. On the 20th ultimo, I had the honor to recommend that an advertisement should be inserted in the Calcutta Gazette regarding the intended sale of certain Beer casks saved from the wreck of the "Kindrochat." Having noticed the advertisement in the Fort Saint George Gazette, he has telegraphed to request that the articles may be enumerated as follows:

325 casks of Beer or Porter marked I. and R. Tennant X X 4 |H,|
37 empty casks and a quantity of staves.

2. He has been directed to explain the reason of the alteration, but meanwhile I would solicit that the advertisement in the Calcutta Gazette be amended, the necessary intimation having been given to the Superintendent of the Gazette of this Presidency.
