You will have heard from Secretary with the Governor General, that the Dragoon Guards are to be shipped at once for China. The "Victoria" and "Coromandel" will start to day, they were unable to go before. With reference to message from Chief Secretary, to Home Secretary, the above vessel and the "Oriental" were sent by Sir Robert McClure to tow down trans-ports to Singapore. The "Oriental" has been despatched with Store ship urgently required; we have heard nothing of the "Pottinger," but Sir Robert McClure said he would send another Steamer if possible. If one comes, she will be sent to Madras.
