Proceedings of the Madras Government, Marine Department,
19th November 1861.

No. 68. Read the following letter from J. J. FRANKLIN, Esq., Superintendent of Marine; to T. PYCROFT, Esq., Chief Secretary to Government, Marine Department, Fort Saint George, dated 18th November 1861, No. 3,238.

By a private letter from Commander Batt of the "Coromandel" lately received, I learn that his vessel will be ready for sea about the 20th or 25th of this month. I have the honor therefore to solicit that the Government be pleased to telegraph to him to return to Madras on his being prepared for sea with a view to his being employed in effecting the relief of the party of Artillery noted in the margin, who are now in the Straits, and who will be re-placed by a party from Mangalore.

A. Company 5th Battalion Artillery, from Singapore to Mangalore.

D. Company 5th Battalion Artillery, from Mangalore to Singapore.

2. The "Coromandel" will likewise be made available for the conveyance to Vingorla of the families of Her Majesty's 44th, for the passage of whom arrangements have been ordered to be made.

Proceedings of Government, Military Department, 15th November 1861, No. 4,157.

No. 69. ORDER THEREON, 19th November 1861, No. 378.

Ordered that the following telegram be despatched to the Marine Department, Government of India.

"Coromandel" understood to be ready for sea. Her services required to take Artillery to Singapore. Request the Commander to come to Madras without delay.
