Proceedings of the Madras Government, Marine Department, 5th December 1861.

No. 13. Read the following letter from Captain J. G. REDDIE, Officiating Secretary to Government of India; to J. D. SIM, Esq., Secretary to Government, Madras, dated Fort William, 18th November 1861, No. 192.

Marine.

I am directed to acknowledge the receipt of your letter No. 331, dated 19th ultimo, and annexure, and in reply to inform you that His Excellency the Governor General in Council has been pleased to sanction the adoption of the Draft Rules for the Port of Ganjam, the levying of a due of one Anna per ton, as also the definition of the limits proposed for the Port of Ganjam.

I am desired to add that a communication has been addressed to the Member for Madras conveying the sanction of His Excellency the Governor General in Council to the above provisions, and requesting him to introduce a special Bill into the Legislative Council in order to authorize the levy of dues, &c., at the Port of Ganjam.

No. 14. ORDER THEREON, 5th December 1861, No. 405.

Communicated to the Superintendent of Marine, and to the Revenue Department.

2. The publication of the Limits and Port Rules sanctioned will be deferred, until a Superintendent of Sea Customs, who is to act as Conservator of the Port, has been appointed at Ganjam, and the levy of Port dues, from which his allowance as Conservator is to be paid, has been legalized by an Act.

3. Provision should be made in the Budget for 1862-63 for the charge, as well as for all the Marine charges embraced in the new scheme.

(Signed) T. PYCROFT,
Chief Secretary.

Exd. F. Cartledge.
