MARINE DEPARTMENT.

PROCEEDINGS OF THE MADRAS GOVERNMENT.

Read the following Proceedings of Government in the Military Department.

Resolution, with reference to Marine Proceedings, No. 337, dated 22nd ult., in which the opinion of the Superintendent of Marine may be obtained as to the best means of effecting the relief of Native Troops serving in Ferozabad and of the rest wherever necessary.

(Here enter 2nd December 1861, No. 4,533.)

ORDER THEREON, 6th December 1861, No. 409.

A copy of these papers will be forwarded to the Superintendent of Marine, and his opinion called for on the points referred to in paragraphs 2 and 3 of the Order.

2. Mr. Franklin is requested to endeavor to make arrangements for continuing the War Contract from month to month until the present question can be finally settled—the Order of Government in the Marine Department, dated 22nd ult., No. 337, being held in abeyance.

3. The present Order will be communicated to the Postmaster General, in reference to Proceedings, 22nd ult., No. 1,561 in the Public Department.
