(True Extract.)

Mr. Raynor's letter in Proceedings, 23rd October 1861, No. 1,301, Judicial.

5. There thus seems to be no objection to carrying out Mr. Fairall's suggestion. The Government resolve accordingly to authorize the Civil Paymaster to audit expenses incurred or admitted by the Superintendent of Marine, provided they are entered in the Supplemental Estimate—the audits being for the present, passed against the unexpended portion of the sanctioned Budget for 1861-62.
