Proceedings of the Madras Government, Marine Department,
22nd February 1861.

No. 32. Read the following letter from J. J. FRANKLIN, Esq., Superintendent of Marine, to T. PYCROFT, Esq., Chief Secretary to Government, Fort Saint George, dated 20th February 1861, No. 537.

I have the honor to inform you that the Commander of the "Arracan" has inquired of me what allowance will be made to him for the expenses incurred in entertaining His Excellency Sir William Denison and Suite during the passage from Galle to Madras. By the Indian Navy Regulations, as I read them, he would be entitled to draw about (600) six hundred Rupees, although they are so worded that it is a question whether a claim could not be sustained for (715) seven hundred and fifteen Rupees. I do not however recommend that these rules should be made applicable. Captain Neblett states that (500) five hundred Rupees would fully compensate him for the additional expenses he has incurred on this account, and while expressing my opinion that this would be a liberal allowance, I beg to recommend that it be sanctioned.

No. 33. ORDER THEREON, 22nd February 1861, No. 59.

In accordance with the recommendation of the Superintendent of Marine, the Government sanction the disbursement to Captain Neblett, Commander of the "Arracan," of the sum of Rupees (500) five hundred as Table Money on account of His Excellency Sir William Denison and Suite for the voyage from Galle to Madras.

(Signed) T. PYCROFT,
Chief Secretary.
