From J. McGUIRE, Esq., Assistant in charge; to the Inspector in charge, Government Telegraph Office, Madras, dated Cannanore, 14th December 1861, No. 37.

No. 67. From J. J. FRANKLIN, Esq., Superintendent of Marine; to T. PYCROFT, Esq., Chief Secretary to Government, Marine Department, Fort Saint George, dated 21st December 1861, No. 3,540.

I had the honor on the 14th instant, to request that Government would be pleased to telegraph orders to Commander Batt at Cannanore to return from the Straits to Madras, instead of to the Western Coast as originally intended. I observe by a public telegraphic notice that the "Coromandel" arrived at Galle on the 14th instant. The message to Cannanore could not therefore have been received. I must consequently solicit that another telegram be sent to Galle, where he may be expected again about the beginning of January, directing him to return to Madras touching at Negapatam for treasure.

No. 68. ORDER THEREON, 21st December 1861, No. 433.

Ordered accordingly that the following telegram be despatched to the Commander of the "Coromandel," to await his arrival at Galle.

"Twenty-first December. The Artillery you are bringing from the Straits are required to be landed at Madras. You are, therefore, to proceed from the Straits to Madras and not to the Western Coast."

2. A copy of these Proceedings will be forwarded to the Officer in charge of the Telegraph Office at Galle for delivery to the Commander on the arrival of the "Coromandel" in that harbour.

(Signed) T. PYCROFT,

Chief Secretary.
