I have the honor to forward copy of a letter from the Board of Trade, number and date* as per margin, and to state that the unsold effects therein referred to, of James Bathie, late a Seaman of the Ship "Sir George Seymour," consisting of a Chest of Carpenter's Tools, was transmitted to the Shipping Master of the Port of London, per Ship "Palestine," John Stevens, Master, and intimation thereof given to the above Officer by letter, with Bill of Lading enclosed, under date the 11th October last, and to request that this communication may be transmitted to the Secretary of State for India for submission to the Board of Trade.

The Ship "Palestine" cleared hence for London on the 11th October 1861.

Form No. 2.

"WAGES AND EFFECTS OF DECEASED SEAMEN."

Office of Committee of Privy Council for Trade, Whitehall, 8th January 1862.

K. K., 29-62.

I am directed by the Lords of the Committee of Privy Council for Trade to acquaint you that they have received information that the unsold effects of James Bathie late a Seaman of the Ship "Sir George Seymour," who is reported to have died at Sea on the 9th June 1861, were delivered to you.

I am therefore to request that the balance (if any) due to the Estate of the deceased may be remitted to Her Majesty's Paymaster General, to be placed to the account of "Wages and Effects of Deceased Seamen," and that an account of the same may be forwarded to this Department, to enable my Lords to settle the claims of the relatives of the deceased.
