Draft Notification

Under Section 6 of the Indian Ports Act XII of 1875, the Right Honourable the Governor in Council hereby notifies that the northern limit of the port of Madras has been extended, and that the boundary pillar will be accordingly shifted one mile further north.

2 It is further notified that, under the provisions of Madras Act I of 1877, all timber shall henceforth be landed exclusively on the beach set apart for the purpose between Casemode and the new boundary pillar, and not elsewhere within the port of Madras.
