GOVERNMENT OF MADRAS.

MARINE DEPARTMENT.

READ—the following paper :—

From Captain H. A. STREET, Her Majesty's Indian Marine, Port Officer, Madras, to the Chief Secretary to Government, dated Madras, 13th January 1888, No. G-9.

I have the honor to acquaint you, for the information of Government, that as no action appeared to have been taken by this office in respect to the instructions contained in G.Os., No. 349, dated 5th August 1884, and Mis. No. 496, dated 11th November 1884, relative to the orders of the Government of India on the subject of "flags and pendants to be used by the different Local Governments and departments subordinate to them," I have issued the necessary orders to have the same immediately attended to so far as the Marine Department is concerned, but as the instructions in question do not seem to have been communicated by Government to the "Customs," "Port Trust" and "Water Police" departments, I submit that these departments may be supplied with a copy of the orders specified above, and informed that the necessary flags can be supplied, on indent, from the Marine Department.

2. I also beg that Government will be pleased to notify that the Local Government ensign is to be flown in future at the flag-staff of the different Port Officers instead of the Union Jack as hitherto.

ORDER—dated 16th February 1888, No. 52, Marine.

Communicated, with the marginally-noted orders, to the Collector, Sea Customs, the Chairman, Harbour Trust Board, and the Commissioner of Police. The attention of these officers is invited to the intimation made at the close of paragraph 1 of the foregoing letter.

2. The recommendation made in paragraph 2 of the Port Officer's letter is approved. Captain Street will issue the necessary instructions to the local Port Officers.
