G.O., dated 29th June 1888, No. 287, Marine.

G.O., dated 16th July 1888, No. 329, Marine.

Order—dated 16th July 1888, No. 329, Marine.

The retention of the present store clerk on Rs. 100 is sanctioned subject to further report at the close of the official year and on condition that if another post can be found for him, the next incumbent shall draw Rs. 50 only. It appears from Captain Street's letter that this man was doing the work of head clerk under Mr. Marshall, in addition to that of storekeeper, and as the stores are to be diminished, it does not appear why their charge should in future occupy the whole time of a man on so large a salary as Rs. 100.

From Captain H. A. STREET, Her Majesty's Indian Marine, Port Officer, Madras, to the Chief Secretary to Government, dated Madras, 2nd July 1888, No. G-302.

I have the honor to acquaint you, for the information of Government, that on the 1st July 1888, the Assistant Port Officer with certain of his establishment, the pilots with their establishment and boats, the sub-marine divers and establishment, and the boat establishment and boats, with the exception of a boat designated the "Port Gig," were transferred to the Harbour Trust Board in accordance with the instructions contained in Marine G.O., No. 15, of 17th January 1888, and Marine, G.O., No. 161, dated 27th April 1888, respectively.

2. I have retained the "Port Gig," but without any crew, pending the orders of Government on the proposal contained in my letter No. G-234, of 29th May 1888.

3. The head clerk of the Assistant Port Officer's office, whose services are no longer required there, has been transferred to my office as a "store clerk," on the same rate of pay as he received as head clerk, viz., Rs. 100 per mensem, pending the receipt of a reply to my letter No. G-300, of 29th June 1888.

4. One head peon on Rs. 10 and three peons* on Rs. 7 each per mensem were transferred to the establishment of the
