The callings of the dockyard people is admitted and this has caused loss to Govt. here.
The reasons assigned for not recovering from those responsible — some one must be — are not at all convincing If Govt. pursue for recovery the matter will probably have to go up to the Govt. of India It is about of the Director to mention the word Justice in connection with this matter.

Subject

Stating that he is unable to order the repayment of Rs 188.7.2 — the extra expenditure incurred in consequence of certain bids being supplied for the dredge Winlock not being of similar pattern.

I hardly like giving in — but it is scarcely worth fighting about.

4. Taking these facts into consideration I think the Government of Madras will forego their request for the refund in question - of the sum of Rs 188-7-2 as requested.

2. I would observe that the charges made by the Royal Indian Marine Dockyards for work for all Government Departments are the actual cost of labour on the work and cost of material used, nothing is charged for supervision, buildings, machinery, docks &c.

3. If percentages were charged as in former years amounting to 10 per cent on the cost of material used, and 10 per cent on the cost of labour, or 25 per cent in the case where workmen drawing monthly rates of pay were employed, all of which might be looked on as a profit on the work, I think that the Marine might with justice be asked to make good the loss caused by their
