7. At Calingapatam the clerical duties are conducted by the Conservator. In view of the out-door duties devolving on him in connection with the Lighthouse, boat traffic, inspection of native Passenger steamers &ca, I consider he should be relieved of clerical work and a clerk appointed as at Cannanore. The Ganjam District Port Fund has still a large deficit but the services of a clerk are absolutely necessary, and the pay proposed is small, namely Rupees (15) Fifteen per mensem.

I find my predecessor makes reference to this subject as follows:—"The strength of the several Office establishments seemed on the whole suffecient, but an additional clerk is required both at Tuticorin and Calingapatam".

4. During my visits to Tuticorin, I personally looked into this matter, and I consider that the work of the Office is too much for one man to perform efficiently and without arrears and that in the event of his absence through illness or long leave serious inconvenience must result.

5. The additional peon at Tuticorin is required to assist in collecting ground rent and generally making himself serviceable at the Jetty where there is only a Tindal now attached.

6. The Tinnevelly District Port Fund is in a position to meet the additional expenditure on account of a second clerk and a peon, the pay proposed being Rupees (20) Twenty and (7) seven respectively.

SIR,

I have the honor to submit for the favorable consideration of Government the necessity for appointing a second clerk and an additional peon at Tuticorin, and a Clerk for the Port Conservator's Office at Calingapatam.

2. When the Establishment at Coast ports was under revision in 1893 the necessity for a second Clerk at Tuticorin was pointed out by my predecessor and the necessary sanction was accorded in G.O., Financial, No. 385, dated 15th April 1893. In connection, however, with the question of exempting Clerk Velayudan Pillai of the Tuticorin Port Office from passing the usual test it was decided to withdraw this sanction (G.O., Educational, No. 579, dated 10th August 1893)

Mar: Cir: 286.

The P.P.O. requests sanction for an extra clerk on Rs: 20 and a peon on Rs: 7 for the Tuticorin port office.

G.O. 385 Finl. 15.4.93 sanctd. an extra hand on Rs: 15/. but this sanction was afterwards withdrawn on the Govt: learning that the port office clerk (on Rs: 30) conducted also some duties for the Rev: dept: for whi: he was paid separately.

The work is no doubt heavy and it is subd: the addl: Estn: asked for may be given. There is no reason why the new clerk shd: receive more than Rs: 15, the amount sanctioned in 1893.

Comdr: Powell also asks for a clerk on 15/. for Calingapatam. A similar request was re-

I quite agree with H.E. as to Tuticorin — As to Calingptm., I consider that it should be shown that there has been an increase of work before the Clerk is sanctioned. The port has got on well enough hitherto — Why shd. it not continue to do so, ~~not~~ unless the cirs. have changed. It must be remembered that the addl. expenditure will practically come out of Revl. funds, as matters now stand, and as they may continue to stand, for it is as yet impossible to say whether it will be practicable to reform the existing system of Port Fund accounts

26/4/95

I agree about Tuticorin. We shd have further information about the work at Calingapatam on acct: of the state of the Ganjam Port Fund. This fund still owes nearly 2 lakhs to Madras, and will never be in a position to pay it. The services of a clerk are reported to be "absolutely necessary", and he will cost only Rs: 180 a year.

Since 1893 work must have increased considerably at Tuticorin as ~~there~~ there is now a daily mail steamer service ~~[illegible]~~ between Tuticorin and Colombo and the Port has been growing in commercial importance. It is now second only to Madras.

As regards Calingapatam the revision of Port Funds which is under the consideration of the Hon'ble Mr Bliss will probably end in the wiping out of the debts of all ~~Port~~ such Port Funds. Even if it does not Rs 180 p.a is too small a sum to be refused – especially when "absolutely necessary" – on the ground that a Port Fund is a couple of lakhs in debt.

I think the P.O.'s requests may be granted. Tuticorin does a very large business now – & I would not haggle with him over his clerk's ... 20 R.
