FOR ORDERS.

This is a reply to para. 4 of G.O.

The telegram does not say what cause the Commis- have followed on para. 5. This does not, however, affect the immediate question at issue, ^{which is} whether Mr. Ellis may now be granted the six weeks' priv. leave applied for in his letter read in the G.O. already referred to.

The only thing against granting the leave is the fact that it has not yet been settled who is to pay the privilege leave allowance.
The Secy-General thinks Govt. should pay a proportionate share (Please see his letter in the same G.O.) This wd. require India sanction which is full months to get. The Commis- may perhaps for the whole of it, in which case no trouble will arise.

(The Act. General's office knows all about this case, & will ^{perhaps} raise the point at the next audit of the accounts). It is ^{however} submitted that the question may be left alone until some one raises it, that Mr. Ellis may now be granted his leave, which he wants very badly.

There seems to be nothing in any of the rules to make this course objectionable, & the 2nd Act. Financial Dept., who knows them well cannot discover that they prevent the grant of leave at once.
